I have gained a really hands on Experience with on graphic design which was delivered by Akash sir was very supportive and endless worthy experience so far.

Rajendra Prasad

I'm Rajendran Prasad, to be honest I'm expressing my words, I have researched and found the correct certificate on LinkedIn and scan that and found it 100% genuine and verified successfully.

It's my individual recommendation for everyone that Krutanic company is perfect with quality training and real world projects.

I have seen some bad reviews and many good reviews so got confused but now I realised that Krutanic solutions is the best company ever for training and internship provider, I have learned a lot of new industrial things.

Krutanics Full Stack Web Development program was a fantastic learning experience. The course covered essential technologies like HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, and backend development, providing strong foundation for building real-world web applications. The hands-on projects and expert guidance from mentors made learning interactive and practical. This program is perfect for beginners and aspiring developers looking to enhance their skills in web development. Highly recommended.
